Subject: Registration of Richard Mason

I talked with Ron Lagon on Monday, March 20th.

He stated that there never was a file started on Richard Mason due to the fact that [REDACTED] thought it would cause conflicts with Richard's father, [REDACTED] member of the council and at that time an active member.

I suggest a meeting of the above to discuss what our plan should be and to discuss whether removing Richard from Scouting would be ⁱⁿ the best interest of Scouting and our council.

Dear Mark:

I am replying to your letter of September 23, 1987. Several things happened which should be brought to your attention. After Richard had been with our troop for several months, we went to summer camp. One night at summer camp we found Richard in one of the boys tents. It happened to be our senior patrol leader so the boy was alone in the tent. We had heard rumors about Richard and were watching him very carefully. He was only in the tent a few minutes (about ten). We questioned the boy and are fairly certain no molestation happened but after questioning the boy we also felt that was the reason for the entry into the tent.

Although the next few items aren't nearly as important as any possible molestation of the boys, nevertheless I feel they show that Richard is definitely not an adequate role model/leader.

- 1) Richard has bizarre eating habits. The boys and scouters that were assigned to his table at summer camp were astounded at his habits. One example was putting ketchup on his cereal. Another example was putting orange juice on his pancakes. The mixes of food that he came up with were unusual and unappetizing, to say the least. Most people wouldn't believe the combinations unless they saw them. The boys usually did not want to sit with Richard because of his strange eating habits.
- 2) Richard was very lax in awarding advancements to the boys. They knew that and would go to him to get skill awards etc. There was one time when he gave or approved 5-6 skill awards including "teaching" the skills in 15 minutes. We had to initiate a policy that only certain assistant scoutmasters were allowed to approve awards.

I'm sure there were many other incidents that I am unable to remember after approximately 12 months since the troop asked Richard not to come back to our meetings. I was under the impression that "council" knew of the problems we were having. In talking with other scouters at Roundtable

CONF006849

Kirschner, Heimlich, Mulligan & Co.

Re: Mr. Mark Truner

and camporees, we were told that several other troops had complained to council. I would suggest that you contact the scoutmasters and other leaders of troops that Richard has been associated with. I would also suggest you contact some of the other leaders of Troop 475, namely Gary Mayer, Jeff Collins, Roger Greenawald or Gordon Vink.

It worries we even more now that Richard is working with a cub scout pack. The older boys in boy scouts could deal with someone like Richard easier than the 7-10 year old cub scouts.

If this is the first time that council has become aware of the problems with Richard I am sorry for not personally notifying you earlier. I was told that you knew all about the problems I would be happy to have somebody come down to my office and discuss this with me. I'm sure it could be arranged for some of the other leaders mentioned above to be there also.

Very truly yours,

Stanley J. Topy, CPA

Dear Father Clagett:

Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to meet with Charles Holmes and myself on the 22nd. We appreciate being able to discuss our concerns with you regarding Richard Mason and his suitability as a Scout leader, particularly in a role working with boys. We also appreciate you sharing the incident involving the Girl Scouts with us.

As I indicated, I am in the process of soliciting written statements from Scouters that have worked with Mr. Mason in the past. Following these inquiries, we will determine if we will allow him to remain registered with the Central Ohio Council in any capacity.

Regardless of the outcome, we recommend that Richard Mason be placed in a Committee Member role. One that does not involve direct contact with youth.

As you requested, I will set up a meeting with your scouting coordinator, Dick Jones, to discuss this matter further.

Once again, thank you for allowing us to share our concerns regarding Richard Mason. If I can ever be of assistance to your Scouting Ministry, please feel free to contact me.

Re: Richard Mason

Plan of Action

Since no cases of actual child abuse have ^{not} been reported to date, we lack just cause for suspending Richard's registration. However, we could approach this from the point of view of his fitness and ability to lead. Extra caution needs to be taken because of the family name and the potential bad P.R. (i.e. "Boy Scouts deny registration to men because he is retarded")

What I suggest is this. That we conduct a series of interviews with individuals who have expressed a concern about Richard. Their statements be written down and a copy sent to the individual who made it asking them to notify us if there are any inaccuracies. These same people have been given the chance to make written statements in the past but have declined or failed to do so. Once we have collected them, our ~~staff~~ Youth Protection Committee can review it and make their recommendation.

Here are the people that I believe would benefit us the most in this effort:

1. Jeff Collins - Columbus Police, Scoutmaster, Post Advisor
2. Girl Scouts - Richard used to work with them. There was an alleged incident but the parish priest dismissed it as an understanding.

3. Roy Case - refuses to allow Richard to be certified as one of our Merit Badge counselors. (I agree)
4. [REDACTED] - an assistant Scoutmaster who once spent a week at summer camp with Richard. I believe he sent [REDACTED] concern that may be in the Mason file.
5. [REDACTED] involved with Pack/Troop 861 has had several interactions with Richard both in Scouting and in other community / school activities. I believe that they live in the same neighborhood.
6. Paul Knoblerch - As Scouting Coordinator at Holy Spirit Parish, he took the necessary steps to remove Richard from their Scouting programs.

In Richard's voluminous correspondence to me, he mentions some of his other community activities. Perhaps we should contact them to see if they have had any problems.

Because of Ren's note, I think that we must decide now and act quickly, but not hastily. Perhaps consulting with the Region or National might be helpful. We may find that mental retardation is just grounds for denying registration. Let's discuss this as soon as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

Mat Linn

Richard Mason's communication, activity and qualifications for leadership lead me to inform you that he should not be a leader of Scouts.

His attempts to be a registered volunteer through direct dealing with the Central Ohio Council in 1985 and 1986 through Ron Eagon were refused. He has since found a registered status elsewhere.

For the record, I believe that this is a high risk situation needing your attention. We stand ready to support your efforts to maintain standards of leadership.

RE: Child Abuse/Standard of Leadership

Please determine the position statement we must take with situations like:

- a.) Mason
- b.) Delaware Scouter Inquiry

It is critical that a "Monkey" be placed for the record! I would prefer the reaction to a proactive position so long as it is not malicious incrimination of character. More to the point, to create an uneasy atmosphere that will cause action from those who have (1) initiated inquiries or (2) have direct contact with individuals unworthy of registering.

The attached is my best thinking. Help!

These two situations seem coincidently too connected. Plus, I want to take a position now regarding item (a) before any events this person might conduct in the name of Scouting.

I would like you to share with me a proactive solution.

There have been too many coincidental inuendo, unsubstantiated remarks and phone calls questioning this person's qualifications to be a leader; therefore, I must go on record and fault on the side of a boy.

SITUATION

At the USA Skate Night on Tuesday, March 10 on [REDACTED] Richard Mason was observed taking names address and phone numbers of boys entering on this Scout Night Promotion.

Jeff Collins and Steve Quinel asked Richard what he was doing. He replied that he was following the manager's orders. Jeff and Steve went and asked the manager why, and he said that "Oh that's Mark Turner. He's checking to make sure that he has a list to see if all the boys are registered."

All were suprised when it was discovered that Richard Mason had been selling himself as "District Executive" Mark Turner.

RECOMMENDATION

I advise you and the Loss Prevention Committee to take action at removing Richard Mason from the BSA Registration. We have numerous letters written by Richard that support the need to take this action.

Dear Executive Director;

I realize that I am late in sending you this information, and I hope that you will still read it. I should have had it to you with-in 60 Days But I got tied up with other events not related to Scouting, but had been wanting to write you for sometime, but I did not get the chance to. Until now. So I hope that during this new Year, I would like to get solved the problem or problems that caused me to receive this letter. I love Scouting and hope to continue in it. But I would like to solve the problems that caused me to leave.

When I got this letter Monday October 23, Several things went through my mind as to why I got it; I could not figure it out. And I am not trying to cover up anything, but by no means am I perfect. But I was never told what the problems were and why I was being asked to leave. If I had known for sometime I was going to be put out for this or that, ok, I would accept it, and realize that yes My errors caused me to leave, I had never received a letter like this before, in any organization I have ever been in, and I am in quite a few now, non-Scouting. and do very well in them. one is a Boys Club in the City of Columbus Which I have been with as a Volunteer since 1970, and have never had any trouble. That is why I said, I can not figure out, what I have done wrong that would cause me to leave your Organization as a Active Member; If I could hear from you with some Information, I could correct the problems, and I hope that if the Lord Wills it I could be reinstated. Or do you feel maybe I can serve you better as a Alumnus . I was in that program from January 85-87 and loved it. I kind of have a calling for that type of program. if The active role is not for me. But I do hope that I can get this cleared up .

I will say this, My Early Years in Scouting were not the best, Because I was trying to do to much and was getting Tired .and when your Tired, Yes mistakes will come. no question about it. I knew I was not that sharp, and so did a lot of other People including the Central Ohio Scout Executive J.H. Brownie. but he did not throw me out and say your History. He knew I was not sharp and asked me of insted of working with a Troop and Pack how would I like to work with Explorers. I accepted and found it very good and enjoyable and feel that I did turn myself around, which I had to do. or I would be out. I am not proud of my early years at all. I let myself down. I was very greatful to be given the chance to continue.

If I had to grade myself those Early years 1967-1970. May Each Year. I would give Myself a C- D. Rating. which is not to good. Now maybe some People felt I did not have it at all and leave.

But After I took Woodbadge, I saw a whole new Game. And would rate myself with a B-A.Plus. because I learned so much more and felt I did a lot better. but I guess the enclosed letter says different. Well like I said If I could only know the mistakes I made ,I can correct them.

It seems to me, I do better with Non-Scouting work then Scouting. And some People in Scouting have told me this. They see me as I do very strong in Non Scouting work then Scouting.

I do feel this way, that I have been stronger with Non Scout Events then Scouting. Maybe Scouting was not men;t for me, but I will say, I must have done something right to stay in from May 1967- October 1989. When I got the letter. I don;t really feel I did all that bad, but like I said I was not always that sharp. But I made many wonderful Friends and have many happy memories of Different things and events that I took part in from Day 1-now. when I came in.

Richard Mason Review

In Attendance:

Lowell Anderson, Chairman	Jay Daniel Hart
Grant Herman	Richard Kasperson
Paul J. LaFreniere	John McKenzie
John D. Neesley

Concern regarding Richard Mason's denial of membership by the Central Ohio Council, Columbus, Ohio.

Richard Mason was invited to attend but distance was prohibitive. Concerns involve the fact that Mr. Mason is evidently slightly retarded. His problem seems to be that he does not possess the moral, educational, and emotional qualities necessary to give positive leadership to youth.

Real concern was expressed that after reading the entire file, no specific allegations could be found charging Mason with any action that would warrant placing him on the confidential file.

It was noted that Central Ohio Council has not yet put him in the confidential file. The committee felt we need to talk to Mr. Mason. Dan Hart and Eugene Trescott will be asked to meet at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, March 19 at the Columbus Scout office to meet first hand with Mr. Mason. The case will be reconsidered at our next meeting.
